It is a condition of registration and use of the track that the directors, either individually or collectively, officials and the land owner will not accept any liability for accidents or injuries, death or damage arising from racing, practicing, spectating or any general use of the track including all associated areas / buildings. It is therefore a requirement that drivers, mechanics, spectators should always take suitable precautions to ensure safe conditions exist within club grounds and accept all risks associated with motor racing.

An approved fire extinguisher BSEN 55B MUST be present at all times.

Registration is renewable on 1st January each year. Registration fee £10.

Annual Pitbay hire £100 – please include with application.
